- Inclusive Education offers the opportunity to reflect and develop practical strategies to offer a high-quality education to all students, including those most vulnerable or at risk of exclusion, marginalization or school failure.
- The concept of inclusive education is based on a teaching tailored for the identity and for the individual and specific educational needs of each child, without losing sight of the common educational framework. It is a comprehensive and inclusive approach to promote relevant social values that are basically learned in contexts of diversity.
- With this course you will learn to recognize the socio-educational implications of cultural diversity and the related special needs: you will be able to value them, manage them and respond to individual and group needs in both formal and non-formal settings.

- Finally, it should be noted that this course will give you the ability to achieve the objective of a high-quality inclusive school and to promote cooperative learning, leading to the mutual enrichment of all students.
